

Name:

Motor Vehicle Transition Exercise & Information Activity

Please read the instructions below and complete in as much detail as possible. You are not being assessed on your style of handwriting, however we must be able to read it!

Please describe below your intended chosen career path and explain what steps you think you would need to take in order to achieve your career aim

Describe below the person you are: what are your strengths or attributes that you possess, have you got any weakness that can be developed?

Please describe below any hobbies or interests that you have that may help you with your chosen course of study

Please state below the name of any automotive / engineering business you live near or are able to travel to - or state below where you would like to undertake your mandatory work experience.

Your chosen course of study this year will require that you complete some work at home in your own time. Please state what kind of computer equipment you have at your disposal to complete qualification work online

Please return this information on enrolment day in August 2020

_____ Please detach _____

Equipment requirements for September 2020:

Overalls and safety boots or safety trainers.

2 x lever arch files (any colour)

Pen and pencil.

Mobile phone or tablet device to capture picture evidence to support completion of awarding body practical assessments.

For info:

Please create an account at: <https://www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship>

You can use this platform to search for an apprenticeship in your field of interest.

The first unit will focus around the knowledge of Health and Safety in workplaces.

Please attempt the questions below using the following website to help you – www.hse.gov.uk

1. An automotive technician wears overalls as part of their personal protective equipment (PPE). Name one item of additional PPE required and state the task it would be used on, to protect.
 - a. the head
 - b. the feet
 - c. the hands
 - d. the eyes
 - e. the ears
2. What item of PPE is it essential to wear in order to alert others of the presence of repair or recovery operations by the roadside?
3. Name three items of equipment used to protect customers' transport when carrying out repairs, recovery or maintenance.
4. Many accidents in the automotive environment are caused by slips, trips and falls. List three different causes of these.
5. Name two utilities and three consumables used within the automotive environment that should not be wasted unnecessarily.
6. List the equipment and cleaning agent(s) which would be used when dealing with minor oil leaks / spillages in an automotive environment.
7. State one duty imposed on the employee by the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974.

8. State one duty imposed on the employer by the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974.
9. List two reasons for recycling waste materials where possible.
10. State where and why barrier cream would be used in an automotive environment.
11. Describe the main potential hazard when using the equipment shown below.

11. State a potential hazard when working in the area shown below.

12. State the name of the regulations that relate to the piece of equipment shown below, with regard to Health and Safety.

13. List four things that an employer should provide in order to comply with modern safety legislation.

14. State two types of fire that it would be extremely dangerous to use the extinguisher A (Foam) on.

Extinguisher A _____

14. State two types of fire that extinguisher B (Carbon Dioxide) should be used on.

Extinguisher B _____

15. State the type of safety sign shown below.

16. State the type of sign shown, and what it means.

17. State the type of sign shown, and what it means.

18. State the meaning of the following product warning signs.

